Revenue Growth Leader | Built 2 E-commerce Brands (6M+ Customers) | Sales Operations & D2C Expert | Now ML/Data Science Enabled | Open to Head of Growth, RevOps, Senior DS Roles

New Delhi, Delhi, India

Summary

I build revenue engines that scale profitably. Over 12 years, I've grown two e-commerce brands from zero to serving 6M+ customers: → ClickOnCare: Built sales operations (inbound + outbound teams) for multi-brand marketplace with 900+ healthcare/beauty brands. Scaled to significant market presence competing against VC-funded unicorns through operational efficiency and customer-first approach. → Lukewarm Essentials (Director): Launched D2C skincare brand achieving #3,000+ average order value - 8-10x industry standard - using assisted sales model (60% specialist-guided, 40% organic). Grew revenue to #76L + annually without discounting while competitors collapsed. KEY DIFFERENTIATORS:- Zero-Discount Growth Philosophy: Built sustainable revenue models focused on customer value, not promotional addiction. Maintained premium pricing and profitability while competitors burned cash.- Full-Funnel Expertise: Not just strategy - I've managed sales teams, optimized conversion funnels, built retention programs, and owned P&L.- Operator + Analyst: Made revenue decisions for a decade. Now adding data science and machine learning to systematize what I did intuitively. In the midst of an intensive DS/ML program (Scaler) WHAT I'M LOOKING FOR: Senior roles where strategic revenue thinking meets technical execution:- Head of Revenue Operations / Growth- VP/Director of Sales (Analytics-First)- Principal Data Scientist (Customer/Revenue Focus)- Growth Product Manager- Fractional CGO for scaling D2C brands I don't just understand data science - I understand the business problems worth solving because I've bled on them for 12 years. Let's connect if you're building revenue-driven teams that value both strategic depth and technical capability.
